For over a decade, the Sharing Brings Hope Consolidated Charitable Campaign has raised donations in your schools and offices. Every February and March, LAUSD's staff, teachers and students and their families contribute time, passion and donations to the Sharing Brings Hope campaign. LAUSD employees are generous, giving people who really care about our communities and the people who live in them.

The Sharing Brings Hope Campaign joins together many of the most prominent and effective charitable federations in greater Los Angeles. This campaign funds over 400 local charities that reach out to the communities of greater Los Angeles and the people who live in them. LAUSD employees have started and staff four of the participating agencies.

This really is your campaign. Your support helps to fund these twelve hardworking agencies.

- The Asian Pacific Community Fund is the only community based fund committed to serving the needs of the Asian Pacific Islanders in Southern California. APCF's 29 agencies serve over 100,000 people annually with after-school programs, health & human services, housing and much more.
- The Brotherhood Crusade provides necessary resources, supportive services, and a voice of advocacy to traditionally underserved communities. We support families and individuals by promoting health and wellness, providing and enhancing educational opportunities, cultivating economic growth; and building community agencies and institutions
- Community Health Charities of California has over 40 health-oriented charities that provide patient services, distribute health information and conduct research to the diverse communities of Los Angeles. Our member charities cover the health needs of everyone, from infants to seniors.
- Earth Share of California is a non-profit federation made up of environmental organizations working to protect our natural resources and build safer and healthier communities.
- The Hispanic Scholarship Fund provides the Latino community more college scholarships and educational outreach support than any other organization in the country.
- The Kathryn Kurka Children's Health Fund provides glasses, dental care and other medical care for LAUSD students who have no other resources.
- The LAUSD Employee Sponsored Scholarship Fund assists graduating seniors with financial assistance that allows them to attend colleges and universities.
- The Los Angeles Trust for Children's Health supports school-based health centers and other supplementary health programs for LAUSD students.
- The United Latino Fund provides funding support to social service organizations that provide much needed services to Latinos in Los Angeles County.
- The United Negro College Fund is the nation's oldest and most successful minority higher education assistance organization. UNCF awards more financial assistance to African American students than any other entity beside the government.
- The United Teachers Educational Foundation prepares, trains and guarantees teachers have the skills to best instruct their students. .
- United Way of Greater Los Angeles helps "bridge the gap" in Los Angeles County by supporting more than 250 local charities that help youth succeed, strengthen families and assist people in need through learning, empowering and caring.

*Last year the Sharing Brings Hope Campaign raised over $1.2 million dollars!
Your Sharing does bring Hope to many people in greater Los Angeles.*
