

“SHARING BRINGS HOPE” CAMPAIGN UNIFIED MESSAGE

The Sharing Brings Hope Campaign joins together twelve (12) of the most prominent and effective charitable federations in greater Los Angeles. All twelve agencies are licensed, fiscally responsible organizations, which together, raise funds for over 400 individual charities that reach out to your communities and the people who live in them. Your support funds any or all of these twelve hardworking agencies.

- The Asian Pacific Community Fund (APCF) is the only community based fund committed to serving the needs of the Asian Pacific Islanders in Southern California. APCF's 29 agencies serve over 200,000 people annually with after-school programs, health & human services, housing and much more.
- Brotherhood Crusade provides necessary resources, supportive services, and a voice of advocacy to traditionally under-served communities. We support families and individuals by promoting health and wellness, providing and enhancing educational opportunities, cultivating economic growth, and building community agencies and institutions.
- Community Health Charities of California has over 40 health-oriented charities that provide patient services, distribute health information and conduct research to the diverse communities of Los Angeles. Our member charities cover the health needs of everyone, from infants to seniors.
- Earth Share of California is a non-profit federation made up of environmental organizations working to protect our natural resources and build safer and healthier communities.
- The Hispanic Scholarship Fund provides the Latino community with more college scholarships and educational outreach support than any other organization in the country.
- The Kathryn L. Kurka Children's Health Fund provides glasses, dental care and other medical care for LAUSD students who have no other resources. The fund also supports the PTA Clinics that serve all LAUSD students.
- The LAUSD Employee-Sponsored Scholarship Fund assists graduating seniors with financial assistance that allows them to attend colleges and universities.
- The Los Angeles Trust for Children's Health supports school-based health centers and other supplementary health programs for LAUSD students.
- The United Latino Fund provides funding for many Latino social service organizations in education and the arts that provide services to the people of Los Angeles County.
- UNCF is the nation's oldest and most successful minority higher education assistance fund. UNCF awards more financial assistance to African-American students than any other entity besides the government
- The United Teachers Educational Foundation prepares, trains and guarantees teachers have the skills to best instruct their students.
- United Way of Greater Los Angeles is "Creating Pathways Out of Poverty" in Los Angeles County by supporting more than 125 local charities that help youth succeed, strengthen families and assist people in need through learning, empowering & caring.

You have the choice of any or all of the twelve organizations to support. They are all licensed, fiscally responsible organizations, who together, raise funds for over 400 individual charities. Your community, your schools, your students, perhaps, even your own family have been helped by the work that they do.

Sharing Brings Hope.....it really does.
